

Take our Cotswolds tour from London

Winter is a wonderful time in London, with plenty of things to see and do.

But there's something about this time of year that makes you want to head to the countryside.

Maybe it's the idea of sitting next to an open fireplace in an historic pub or the thought of seeing rolling hills shrouded in mist. Perhaps it's the appeal of slowing down with the seasons and enjoying the silhouettes as the trees lose their leaves.

If you're yearning for some country air, our Cotswolds tour from London is just the thing for you.

All you need to do is board a train at Paddington and in just over an hour and a half we'll pick you up from Moreton-In-Marsh railway station.

Then the fun begins!

Remember the idea of sitting next to an open fireplace in an historic pub? Well we can do better than that at Secret Cottage!

Throughout your tour, you'll see breathtaking scenery and picturesque villages you can only dream of. Whatever the weather, our tour is the stuff of fairytales – at least that's what our appreciative visitors say! Guests say the tour is magical and many rave that it's the best part of their stay in the UK.

But it's not just rolling hills and scenery that they love.

It's the visit to our home at Secret Cottage that stays with them forever.

Imagine if you will a picture-book perfect thatched cottage, complete with English country garden. Secret Cottage is just like that and you'll get to spend time inside with us.

Three times throughout the day you're invited in for food. In the morning you'll enjoy coffee and pastries. At lunchtime we'll prepare you a delicious buffet lunch and in the afternoon you'll eat scones freshly baked in the Aga.

This time of year our guests like to sit in front of one of three inglenook fireplaces. During the summer you're free to wander through our country garden.

Secret Cottage is the perfect winter wonderland, seeped in history. You'll experience winding stairs, original elm plank floors and plenty of beams in this 500 year old cottage!

If you've ever wondered what it's like inside a traditional English thatched cottage, now is your chance. Why not book your place today for a memorable Cotswolds tour from London.
